Episode Transcript

[Laura Gisborne] Welcome to the Limitless Women Podcast. Your place to stay connected to the Limitless Women community, and discover new ways to grow and scale a profitable, purposeful business. I'm Laura Gisborne, the Founder of Limitless Women and I'm thrilled to have you here. You're in the right place if you know you want to play a bigger game and you know you'd like to make a difference with your work but you may not know exactly how to do it. The Limitless Women community is made up of women just like you. We're a community of givers, it's at the heart of everything we do.

On the Limitless Women Podcast you'll find solo shows, where I talk about topics like your business model, sales strategies, marketing and a whole lot more. I will also be doing interviews with influential women in our community and beyond. This will provide you with new perspectives and influences on your path to success. You'll want to subscribe to this show so that you can stay up to date on all the happenings with Limitless Women, our live events, our business school and also receive other resources. What makes the Limitless Women community so fantastic is that we believe giving causes growing. We all love to share resources with one another. I'd love to know which resources work for you and to personally answer your questions.

You can reach out to me through our website at LimitlessWomen.com. You can also engage with our community through our Facebook group, which you can join by clicking the link in the show notes below. I'd like to invite you to join us at one of our exclusive retreats. We host three of these each year so that you can deeply connect with your fellow Limitless Women, while gaining power resources to grow your business. Visit us at LimitlessWomen.com for details.

Finally, please take a moment to subscribe to the show so you never miss an episode. Now let's get started!
